

THE COLLEGE OF SAINT ROSE

Margaret Dugan Sandman '40' Alumni Garden

"My family's hope is that others who pass through this garden will experience its beauty and be reminded of the many gifts that Saint Rose represents."

~Nancy Sandman '70 on the occasion of the Garden

dedication on May 14, 2011

STORY OF THE GARDEN

The newly completed Alumni Garden is a beautiful gateway to the Saint Rose campus. Located next to Moran Hall, the first College building which opened in 1920, the garden ensures a continued link from the past to present and future generations. The Margaret Dugan Sandman '40 Alumni Garden provides a calming and beautiful oasis on our urban campus.

This Garden provides alumni and friends of the College with the opportunity to remember and honor dear friends, family members, a favorite professor or to celebrate a happy occasion. The garden which reflects all the cycles and seasons of an individual's life so it is a fitting place in which to recognize loved ones (anniversaries, birthdays, graduations, or as a memorial).

THE GARDEN DEDICATION: MAY 14, 2011

On May 14, 2011 the garden was dedicated in memory of Margaret Dugan Sandman '40 as a result of a gift from her family to establish an endowed fund which will help to sustain the maintenance of the garden for years to come. The Margaret Dugan Sandman '40 Alumni Garden adds new life and beauty to the Saint Rose campus. Margaret was the Valedictorian of her class and a member of the Board of Trustees from 1984-1991. She Faithfully supported the mission of The College of Saint Rose and her family honored her loyalty, grace and beauty with this gift in her name.

Contributions are permanently invested (endowed) to supply a steady, annual source of funds for the future needs of the alumni garden.
