This statement should be read by ALL students:

It is policy of The College of Saint Rose to have an Advisor's signature or Alternative PIN Number for Registration, Adding/Dropping, and Withdrawing from courses. If you choose to take full responsibility for consequences resulting from this change in registration WITHOUT having an advisor's signature, and without having consulted the Financial Aid Office please read the following and sign your name indicating acceptance of this responsibility.

I understand that the college strongly urges me to consult the Financial Aid Office so that I may have a clear understanding of my financial responsibilities. I am aware that I should speak with a financial aid counselor if I am withdrawing from one or more courses because these actions could have implications on my current and future financial aid eligibility. I understand that if I am withdrawing from all courses I will be responsible for tuition and fees according to the published withdrawal schedule. My financial aid will be prorated according to my date of withdrawal. Should this change put me below full-time status (Graduate 9 credits, Undergraduate 12 credits) I understand that there may be implications on my current and future financial aid eligibility.
