

Every Broadway performer has a variety of skills at their fingertips, and this class, taught by two New York City theater professionals, will build these valuable skills in group activity and one-on-one instruction. Here the focus is on developing a well-rounded, multi-faceted, Broadway-caliber performer!